Join the 50000&1 SEAPs coaching programme!

Open call for participation to local authorities and Covenant of Mayors (CoM) Supporting Structures.

The 50000&1 SEAPs project provides a coherent approach to integrating Energy Management Systems (EnMS) with Sustainable Energy Action Plans (SEAPs) according to energy management standards such as ISO50001.

The 50000&1 SEAPs coaching programme addresses key actors - Local Authorities and their supporting structures. The main goal of the programme is to share knowledge and provide hands-on support to the set up and implementation of the EnMS+SEAP approach.

The consortium will work with participants in the coaching programme to design and identify training opportunities for each participant (up to 2-days in total duration). These tailor made peer-to-peer activities and trainings (both online and in person), will take place until February 2017.

The training will be delivered by the partners and the Municipalities they support within the project.

The participation to the programme is subjected to a process of selection.
